

Thursday Lates in August

Make a standing date with the MacKenzie every Thursday night when the Gallery remains open until 9:00 PM. Take some time out of your busy week to enjoy our current exhibitions as well as exciting regular programming.

Thursday, August 3, 2017 | 7:00 PM | Sculpture Garden Sketching

Join a Gallery Guide in our inspiring sculpture garden for a summer evening of outdoor sketching.

Thursday, August 10, 2017 | 7:00 PM | Thursday Lates at the Regina Folk Festival

Transformative Landscapes: Animating the Grandfather Stones is a community workshop project led by MacKenzie Adjunct Curator of Public Programs Janine Windolph. Participants will embed images and symbols of stories using chalk on stones that will then be collaged on a large piece of canvas in various patterns. The artwork will change over the weekend as more rocks are added and removed, making the piece transformative in nature for the duration of the workshop and temporary, only to be captured by memory and photographs.

Thursday, August 17, 2017 | 7:00 PM | Transformative Landscapes

Brett Graham Artist Talk

Thursday, August 24, 2017 | 7:00 PM | Sculpture Garden Sketching

Join a Gallery Guide in our inspiring sculpture garden for a summer evening of outdoor sketching.

Thursday, August 31, 2017 | Sculpture Garden Sketching

Join a Gallery Guide in our inspiring sculpture garden for a summer evening of outdoor sketching.

