

SPRING SCAVENGER HUNT

Complete this scavenger hunt while you explore our exhibition Across the Turtle's Back: The Kampelmacher Memorial Collection of Indigenous Art. Return your completed form to the information desk before April 23, 2017 to be entered in a draw for a chance to win a prize package from the MacKenzie Art Gallery Shop, valued at $100! Good luck!

1. Find the artwork that contains butterflies and an airplane. Draw them here!

Hint: This is the first artwork purchased for this collection by Thomas Druyan in 1992.

A large, empty rectangular box with a thin black border, intended for the participant to draw the butterfly and airplane mentioned in the first scavenger hunt question.

2. Look for the drawing of a woman holding her baby. What are all of the artworks on this wall about? Draw an image that reflects what family means to you:

A large, empty rectangular box with a thin black border, intended for the participant to draw an image reflecting what family means to them, as per the second scavenger hunt question.

3. Find the sculpture of a camel. What material is it made from?

4. Look for the group of artworks depicting Sedna. Draw your favorite or your own here:

5. Find the artwork with the floating igloos. How many igloos are there?

Name: _____

Phone Number : _____

Email Address: _____

REMEMBER: Leave your complete scavenger hunt form at the information desk on your way out of the Gallery and be entered in a draw for a chance to win a prize package from the Gallery Shop, valued at $100! *

#ispyattheMAG #meetyouatthemackenzie

@atTheMag

facebook.com/MacKenzieArtGallery

* Scavenger hunt must be completed by Sunday, April 23, 2017 in order to be eligible for the random draw.